Merry Christmas, everyone

Yeah, yeah. It's already Christmas time. The time passes usually faster than we think and suddenly we wake up only to notice, we have no presents, no food prepared and there is a stack of garbage in the sink. Er. Or was that just a flick? Anyway, the winter is NOT here, but the Christmas is. Every decent Polish family will have their hands full preparing dishes (12 of them traditionally), cleaning the premises and most of us, buying gifts for their loved despite having to swarm in a massive queue in nearby mart.

This year, I'll be far from Poland to celebrate New Year's Eve, but I hope the City of Warsaw has prepared some cool events for anyone to join in and have fun.

I'm going to Lapland btw, so I'll keep you updated with Santa and Rudolph's wrongdoings and misdeeds.

Keep warm, have a nice Christmas and a jolly New Year's Eve!
